

Ted Priebe, O.M.D.

Doctor of Oriental Medicine/ Licensed Acupuncturist - AC2184

---

Appointed member Medical Evidence Evaluation Advisory Committee, Department of Industrial Relations, Division of Worker's Compensation, State of California.

Licensed to practice Acupuncture (Needling Therapy) in California in 1983, Dr. Priebe specialized in the study and treatment of pain, and focused on treating neuromuscular injuries and disease especially Complex regional Pain Syndrome/ RSD in an interdisciplinary Pain and Rehabilitation Medical Group, Accredited Pain Program in Torrance California.

Dr. Priebe is a founding member and CEO of the National Oriental Medicine Accreditation Agency (NOMAA.org) creating a national standard for Doctor of Oriental Medicine (OMD) First-professional doctoral degree programs.

Lifetime member- Asian Pacific Islander American Public Affairs Association.

In 1989, founded and served as Chairperson for the NBO (National Board of Acupuncture Orthopedics) and created the first specialty board with educational standards for Licensed Acupuncturist's. First to be designated, Qualified Medical Evaluator (QME), QME No. 914705, California, [Inactive] 1991an served on the Utilization Review Committee, Department of Industrial Relations, Division of Worker's Compensation, State of California, 1993.

2001, Appointed to the California Senate Business and Professions, Subcommittee; Complex regional Pain Syndrome/ RSD.

2001 appointed to the California Acupuncture Board, Education Task Force.

Appointed as a member in 2005 to the Guidelines Evaluation Committee, California Division of Worker's Compensation; 2007, Medical Evidence Evaluation Advisory Committee, Department of Industrial Relations, Division of Worker's Compensation, State of California.

2006 - Doctor of Oriental Medicine (OMD), South Baylo University, Anaheim, California.

2007, California State Assembly, Certificate of Recognition, Presented July 14, 2007.

2007, San Diego's 2007, Health Care Champion Awards, San Diego Business Journal; Individual.

2007, San Diego's 2007, Health Care Champion Awards, San Diego Business Journal; National Oriental Medicine Accreditation Agency (NOMAA).

Publications:

2007 Complex Regional Pain Syndromes, Understanding RSD (Needling Therapy)©

2007 Medical Treatment Utilization Guidelines MTUS (Needling Therapy)©

Contributing Editor, Acupuncture and Electroacupuncture: Evidence-Based Treatment Guidelines, CAOMA 2004.

Inside Kung Fu, Knife Fighting, Mixed Martial Arts - Hand, Knife, Gun, Stick- Jan 2001, Dr. Priebe is a Black Belt, Tae Kwon Do.